"CAPITAL DOTS"

By Our Special The past week has furnished time for a variety of entertainments, as well as work for the professional, business men and legislators. Gus Williams appeared at the Opera House in his new play "Capt. Mishler;" following this was the bright spectacular drama "The Romany Rve," the Catholic Fair, a German by the Columbia Club, the excursion to Charleston, and a number of smaller attractions. The comedy in which Gus Williams appeared as Capt. Mishler was rich and attractive. I can commend him and little Bessie, (who had been left at his state-room by unknown hands, and cared for as his child,) to the readers of the HERALD.

"She is the only girl I love, She is the only girl I prize, She is the darling of my heart,

My pretty little bright blue-eyes." He captured the hearts of his audience by letting in the light upon the tender heart hid under the breast of a strong man. "The Romany Rye" was much enjoyed and deserves worthy mention. The German was a success. The exenrsion was the exciting event of the week. The matter of raising additional stock was referred to the directors. The money borrowed this year to meet the cur rent expenses will be carried against the association until another year.

Since the Stockho'ders have determined to hold another Fair, we hope the people of the County will go to work and show that Newberry County can support a County Fair

MESSES. EDITORS; In the Register of the 15th inst, I notice a local headed the "Way of a Transgressor," It seems there is a mistake either in the Register's reporter or his informer. On Wednesday last I saw Peter Wil-liams, colored, who was sent from Newberry to the Penitentiary in 1877 for the term of fon years for Grand Larceny and made his escape while at work on the G. & A R. R. on the 17th Oct., 1877. He had not been seen i when I saw him. I knew that he had escape and that there was a reward offered for him. told John H. Chappell about it and he told m to let Supt. Lipscomb know about it. I did by wire and next day he sent me the description of the man he wanted and said in his de scription that he had been sent there for four years for Grand Larceny and that one man by the same name sent for one year from this county for the same offense had been pardoned, but the man he wanted had not been paidon d I at once arrested the man and wirea Supt. Lipscomb. He never answered me. At night I wired him og in saying that I was certain had the right man and lold him I would be down next day. I went and Supt. Lipscomb received the man I carried and said he was the man he wanted, and said he escaped from the works on the G. & A. R. R. Williams said he did. Supt. Lipscomb told me to call next day and he would settle with me I went up town and next day between 11 and 1 o'clock I reached the Penitentiary and Supt. Lip-comb ordered his clerk to settle with me-reward $25, expenses 88 55 in full. I went up town and did not know Williams was pardoned qutil about night when I reached the train to come home. Supt. Lipscomb said he had been wanting Williams for seven years. He gave me a description of another escaped convict and asked me to capture him. Since Sunt eau-e Williams happens to be pardored, I do
